Come Celebrate With Us-Chancellor's Inauguration March 5

The neighborhood is invited to a celebration with all the color and tradition of an academic procession and ceremony, when the fifth chancellor of UCSF, Julius R. Krevans, is inaugurated on Saturday, March 5.

The inauguration will highlight UCSF's Second Annual Founders Day, which will begin at 9:30 a.m. with four concurrent scientific presentations, followed by special tours and presentations, a multimedia slide show on UCSF, installation of the Founders Clock Chimes at 11:45 a.m. and a gourmet luncheon at noon.

The formal inauguration ceremony will be held at 2 p.m., preceded by the academic procession from Millberry Union across Parnassus Avenue. Because of the large crowd expected, visitors will be able to view the proceedings by TV monitor in Rooms HSW 300 to 303. Glenn Campbell, chair of the UC Board of Regents, will preside over the ceremony, and UC President David Saxon will install the new chancellor. The inaugural address will be delivered by Steven Muller, president of The Johns Hopkins University, who will speak on "The University and the Professions."

The day will begin with a hospitality suite in the Faculty Club of Millberry Union, 500 Parnassus Avenue, at 8:30 a.m. where visitors may pick up literature and program information and view selected TV news spots featuring UCSF. In addition, a multi-media slide presentation will be shown in the Millberry Union Madrone Room from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.

The four concurrent scientific presentations, to be held from 9:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. in Rooms HSW 300 to 303 (enter through Medical Sciences lobby, 513 Parnassus Ave.), will be on: "The Fetus Comes of Age," Mitchell S. Golbus; "Changing Faces: The Craniofacial Center." George Chierici; "Where Your Health Dollars Go," Dorothy P. Rice; and "Drug Design: The Trojan Horse Alternative," Paul R. Ortiz de Montellano.

Special tours of the campus will leave regularly from the lobby of Medical Sciences from 10:15 to 11:30 a.m. There will be tours and demonstrations within each of the four schools, including the Metabolic Research Unit, UCSF Mobile Dental Clinics, Computer Graphics and the Diabetes Teaching Center.

Reservations are needed for the inauguration program and the luncheon. For further information call 666-2401.

Parking a Crisis—Steps Taken

The San Francisco Department of Public Works has initiated mechanical street cleaning on several streets in the immediate neighborhood surrounding the campus. Under the city's plan, parking is prohibited on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 6 to 10 a.m., on various streets depending on the location. The area affected is bordered by Arguello Boulevard, Lincoln Way, Seventh Avenue, Kirkham Street and all of Parnassus Avenue to Willard. Signs have been installed to warn individuals who park in these areas.

Both this new regulation and the posting of no-parking signs in the southeast section of Golden Gate Park were implemented without any advance notice to UCSF or the community, making it impossible for the campus to institute any corrective programs to alleviate the strain these changes have put on the already overcrowded campus parking facilities.

Chancellor Krevans has written a letter to Mayor Feinstein urging a postponement of the mechanical street sweeping plan and asking that the S. F. Director of Public Works and his staff meet with campus representatives to discuss possible options—for example, the possibility that the campus could take responsibility for keeping the campus portion of Parnassus and other bordering streets clean, and having alternate, less disruptive hours for mechanical street sweeping. He also asked for some sort of comprehensive planning among the campus, the S. F. Department of Public Works and the S. F. Municipal Railway.

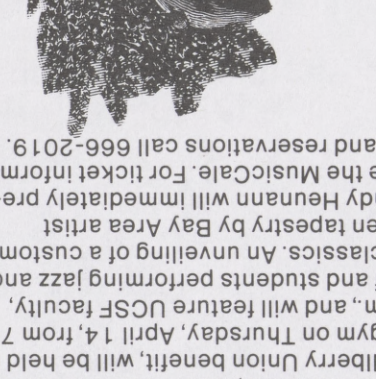

Millberry Union's 25th Anniversary

Millberry Union, UCSF's student union, will celebrate its 25th anniversary the week of April 11. Several special events have been planned for the week concluding with a campus talent show and buffet on Thursday.

Other events will include a demonstration of outdoor adventure equipment—hang gliding and wind surfing simulation—on Tuesday in Saunders Court (enter through Medical Sciences lobby, 513 Parnassus Ave.), at noon, and a 2.1 mile Mount Sutro Run on Wednesday beginning at noon on the steps of the Medical Sciences building.

The MusiCale, which also will serve as a Millberry Union benefit, will be held in the gym on Thursday, April 14, from 7 to 9 p.m., and will feature UCSF faculty, staff and students performing jazz and the classics. An unveiling of a custom-woven tapestry by Bay Area artist Wendy Heunann will immediately precede the MusiCale. For ticket information and reservations call 666-2019.

Saving the Sutro Forest

In order to preserve and enhance the Sutro Forest as a greenbelt, UCSF is in the process of cutting down or pruning some hazardous eucalyptus trees which fell during the recent wind and rain storms. The December 22 storm, in particular, caused heavy damage in the forest, and some 50 trees of various sizes were lost.

Last year the campus planted more than 100 5-gallon size redwoods in the area west of Farnsworth Lane on the eastern border of the forest, and additional redwood trees are being planted this year—particularly where trees have been lost in the Edgewood Avenue area immediately east of the Langley Porter Psychiatric Institute.

Neighbors in this area who would like to make suggestions should contact Nat Garibaldi at 666-1254 or Robert Falcone at 666-5227.
